

Elstead Riding Club

TEAMS UPDATE SEPTEMBER 2010

BRITISH RIDING CLUBS' NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP LINCOLN

The Elstead senior open dressage team won the Rural Riders title for the second time. The ERC team gave a very polished performance to beat last year's winners by 7 marks. The team consisted of Jenny Dutton (riding Jamambo), Annie Denton (Malingold Mercury), Sarah Morley-Boxall (Flying Fun Guy), Tracy Negus (Ashling), Miranda Hodges (Barrister B), Heidi Reed (Merchant of Venice) with Penny Jann calling the test. The junior Elstead members completed the team effort by making sure that both horses and riders were immaculately turned out.

Heidi Reed rode a fantastic individual medium test to become Medium Dressage Champion jointly with a competitor from South Devon. The two were ten marks ahead of the next placed competitors. A well deserved title that Heidi has previously been very close to winning.

Another great success was achieved by Jenny Dutton riding The Snowman in the Style Jumping Championship. Jenny and Snowy showed off their harmonious jumping style to attain an individual second place. Sarah Morley-Boxall was also in the presentation arena for a second time with an individual second place in her arena in the Novice Dressage Championship.

Other senior successes included seventh placed team in the Senior Open Dressage championship with Amy Lindley riding Facet 4th, Miranda Hodges 4th, Annie Denton 8th and Jenny Dutton. They also came 5th in the Team of four dressage. Sarah Morley-Boxall was individual 10th in her Riding Test arena.

The Elstead juniors were a credit to the club in the Junior Team of Four Dressage Championship. Holly Stuart (riding Michaelmas Blue), Charlotte Smith (Heidi), Phoebe Carter (Zaragoza), Freya Lawes (Bunowen Jewel) and Katie Patrick, as commander, showed an impressive display of horsemanship and teamwork to achieve third place.

Other junior successes included the Novice Show Jumping team of Freya, Katie (So Sue Me), Scarlett Flourendzou (It's B'cos) & Isabel Bailey-Collins (Solero Spirit) being placed 6th. In the Riding Test championship Holly was individual 4th and Katie 7th in their respective arenas. The team (Holly, Katie, Phoebe and Venetia Manuel riding Quest) was placed 9th. Phoebe was also individual 9th in her arena in the Junior Dressage championship.
